Anti-Slavery & Human Trafficking Policy

Statement of Policy & Purpose of Policy

M.J Sections Ltd is committed to combating acts of modern-day slavery from within both our business and its supply chain.

The company acknowledges responsibility to the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and will ensure transparency within the company and with suppliers of goods and services to the company. Modern slavery, servitude and forced or compulsory labour are unacceptable in a modern 21st century society.

We have communicated our Modern-Day Slavery Policy to all our workforce, providing them with information on how to identify and report potential slavery within the workplace.

Contractors & Supply Chain

We apply reasonable due diligence to risk assess our supply chain and to use the following mechanisms to do this, and will continue to do the following:

- Risk Assess our supply chain and contractors to identify any areas of high risk
- Provide all findings to our employees and senior management
- Any higher risk suppliers will be communicated with to determine what actions they are taking to eliminate the risk
- Refusal to hold business with any suppliers who do not meet our standards and expectations

Slavery and Human Trafficking are serious crimes, and M.J Sections Ltd are pleased to submit this statement outlining our commitment to the abolishment of these crimes.
